

Nor Are We Afraid: A Catholic Letter of Gratitude for Your Faithful Witness

April 17, 2026

Dear Pope Leo and Archbishop Coakley,

We, the undersigned Catholic bishops, clergy, women and men religious, and other lay leaders in the United States, are writing to express our gratitude for your leadership and moral courage.

At a moment when the Church's public witness is being tested, you have spoken clearly for peace, for human dignity, for migrants and families, for the poor, and for the sanctity of every human life. These commitments flow from the heart of the Gospel and the social teaching of the Church.

Some have tried to turn this witness into a partisan dispute. We understand it instead as fidelity to the Gospel. When the Church speaks for the vulnerable, calls for peace, and insists that every person bears the image of God, it is doing what the Church is called to do.

The Church is called to speak where life is threatened, families are separated, migrants are dehumanized, unjust war is promoted, or the poor are treated as disposable. The Gospel leaves no room for cautious love.

We stand with you because we believe the Church's witness must remain rooted in Jesus Christ: in his mercy, his courage, his defense of the poor, his welcome of the stranger, and his commandment that love of God cannot be separated from love of neighbor.

We write without malice or hatred toward any person. We write to affirm the truth of our faith. In every age, the Church's teaching is engaged, questioned, and at times misunderstood. Yet we trust that the fullness of our faith cannot be reduced or confined, but calls us always to witness to truth, justice, and the dignity of every person. Our faith is not a political position or party platform that persons can adopt or reject; rather, our Catholic faith calls us all to be witnesses of truth and justice, speaking out for those who are marginalized and promoting policies that respect human dignity and life.

To be Catholic in America in this moment is to choose fidelity to the Gospel, to human dignity, to peace, and to the people our Church is called to accompany and defend.

You declared that you are not afraid to stand up and say there is a better way when too many people are suffering today, and too many innocent lives have been lost. Nor are we afraid. Like the first disciples, we pray for the grace to speak the word of God with boldness, and we stand with you.

We pray for you, and give thanks to God for your faithful witness.

In Christ,
